'Bharat Ko Jaano' quiz competition engages students

A quiz competition titled 'Bharat Ko Jaano' was organised by Bharat Vikas Parishad on Saturday, bringing together students from Mahaveer English Medium School and several other institutions. The event saw enthusiastic participation from students, who were divided into junior and senior groups to tackle a variety of questions related to our nation, Bharat (India).

Such quiz competitions are designed to promote learning, enhance cultural awareness, and foster teamwork and collaboration among students. The junior group from Mahaveer English the senior group comprising Siddhi Dunderwal and Riddhi Dharmavat achieved a commendable third place.

This quiz not only helped students develop a competitive spirit but also improved their communication skills. Principal Dr. Pallavi Soman provided guidance and support to the teachers and students in preparation for the competition. She congratulated all the participants, particularly teacher Mrs. Sapna Ubhe, for their dedication and hard work in making the event a success.

Students witness inspiring NDA POP

Mahaveer English Medium School (class IX and X) had the privilege of attending the NDA passing out parade (POP), a momentous occasion that showcased the culmination of rigorous training and dedication of the cadets.

The day began early, with the students arriving at school at 4:45 am, reaching the Kondhwa Gate of the NDA at around 6:15 am and walking 2 kilometres after clearing security checks. The parade ground was impressive, with a huge and well-arranged area accommodating many schools. The atmosphere was electric, with excitement building up as the parade was about to commence.

The parade was presided over by notable dignitaries like Air Vice Marshal Sartaj Bedi, Vice Admiral Gurucharan

Singh, Lieutenant General Dhiraj Singh, and Vice Admiral Sanjay Jaisingh. The parade featured 18 contingents. The names of the illustrious NDA alumni like Commander Rakesh Sharma who is also the Ashok Chakra winner was announced with great pride.

The parade showcased the talents of male as well as the female cadets. The female cadets at this parade proved that women can achieve anything they set their minds to, shattering stereotypes and inspiring future generations.

Also medals were distributed to the cadets for excellence in sports and physical training. The cadets' proud parents looked on as they received their medals and accolades, a testament to their hard work and dedication.

The event emphasized the importance of self-confidence, self-discipline, and ethical standards, with a focus on prioritizing service to the country.

Overall, the NDA passing out parade was an inspiring and memorable event that celebrated the achievements of the cadets and reinforced the values of patriotism, discipline, and excellence in our students.
